

I request that Wisconsin's Do Not Call List law be LEFT UNCHANGED. We have enjoyed protection from home privacy invasions with a strong state law and do not want any exceptions made as proposed by the federal government. Telemarketers have long been a top complaint of consumers and the FCC should support state consumer protection efforts.